Fund Information

Fund Manager Comment

The fund appreciated 7.1% in November. All our holdings generated positive returns, except Alibaba which fell following the cancellation of listing of its affiliate, Ant Financial. The most significant contributors to our returns were Advanced Micro Devices (AMD), Xilinx and Teradyne, all three of which are semiconductor companies. Following the strong performance in AMD and the growing size of our holdings in AMD, we have taken some profits in the shares. We continue to increase our holdings in the security sector with the recent addition of Qualys.
